

Ca di Tulin

Azienda agricola Ca di Tulin - Cisterna d'Asti (AT) - Italia

POPI

Classification: rosé wine

Variety: Nebbiolo 100%

Vineyard: location "Via Lunga" in the municipality of Canale d'Alba (CN)

Age: 2001

Extension: 0,18 Ha

Density: 4200 plants/Ha

Altitude: 350 meters above sea level

Soil: Sandy gravel

Exposure: Southwest

Vine growing: Guyot

Yield: 70 quintals/Ha

Harvest: manual harvest in perforated crates at mid-september, consequently the phenolic maturation phase and climatic conditions.

Vinification: soft pressing followed by carbonic maceration of 24 hours with next fermentation in stainless steel vats at a controlled temperature. Aging with suspension of lees.

Production: 1500 bottles/year

Alcohol: 13,0 % Vol.

Dry Extract: 20

Acidity: 5,5

Sugar: < 1

Tasting notes

Color: bright pink cerasuolo.

Fragrance: fresh and intense with scent of red fruits.

Taste: round and persistent.

Serving Temperature: 12°

Gastronomic combinations

Versatile, from appetizers to fruit passing through the fish. Particularly in combination with peaches.

Note: the name of the wine it's an homage to the winemaker's wife, with a cheerful and inviting pink label, this wine has a strong note of tannins softened by the sweet bouquet of May and the feminine notes of springtime.